

Diligence and Insolvency

BACK BY POPULAR
DEMAND

As insolvency practitioners we need to understand and competently deal with diligence. We need to be able to recognise the rights that a creditor has to exercise diligence and when it takes priority over the insolvency process. Equally we need to know when we can cut down or equalise the diligence and rank the creditor accordingly. There are also occasions when we as IPs may choose to exercise diligence.

This course combines an overview of the legal framework of the most common types of diligence that you will come across, and provides practical guidance on how to deal with diligence in your cases. You will also learn why and when you should effect diligence to assist your recoveries. The emphasis will be on practical, interactive tuition, and you will learn how to confidently apply solutions in your case work.

CPD LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Overview of Scots law on various diligences
- How to deal competently with diligence in your cases

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This course is suitable for experienced IPs looking for an update and a fresh approach to case issues, as well as staff who would benefit from an in depth introduction or refresher to the issue of diligence.

SPEAKERS

Eileen Maclean MA Hons MIPA MABRP MBA, director of Insolvency Support Services Limited

Stephanie Carr, Partner, Dispute Resolution, Blackadders www.blackadders.co.uk

Stephanie Carr is a Partner in Blackadders' Dispute Resolution team and has a number of years' experience acting for a variety of clients in a wide range of contentious litigation cases. She has significant experience in dealing with both personal and corporate insolvency cases, as a result of which she has been accredited as a specialist in Insolvency Law. She regularly acts for clients in both secured and unsecured debt recovery matters and advises on a number of diligence measures open to them. Stephanie has advised and represented clients in a wide range of disputes in the Sheriff Court, the Court of Session and tribunals. She has been the principal adviser to clients including government bodies, companies of all sizes and their directors, private and registered social landlords, individuals, insolvency practitioners, creditors and financial institutions.

LOCATION AND DATE

Edinburgh Tuesday 7 February 2017

TIME

9.30am to 1.00pm

COST

Half day course: £150 + VAT

50% reduction for third delegate booking this course

CPD

3.25 hours