

Trading in Insolvency

Trading a business is one of the most challenging and exciting aspects of our role as IP. Done well, it can maximise returns to creditors. Done badly, we as IPs can end up personally liable for trading losses. This course covers your powers to trade a business and the legal impact of insolvency on the trading position. It offers practical skills and guidance for trading on the business under your control and how to minimise your trading risk. We will also look at issues on selling a trading business.

CPD LEARNING OUTCOMES

- An overview of the statutory powers that entitle you to trade on
- Legal impact of insolvency on trading businesses
